

BILLING AND REIMBURSEMENT ROAD SHOW

Feb. 11th, 2010
Atlanta, GA

a division of the
VGM Group

Presented by Peggy Walker, RN,
Billing and Reimburesment Advisor, US Rehab

REIMBURSEMENT RULES:

“DOING THE RIGHT THING AT THE RIGHT TIME”

This Billing & Reimbursement Road Show is a hands-on workshop that takes you through the Medicare billing process from start to finish. We will discuss basic billing rules for all DME, as well as how to work through a denied claim. We will review the effective use of ABNs, how to bill for repairs, and the proper documentation requirements for Mobility Assist Equipment. Fraud and abuse issues and current medical policy updates will also be discussed.

Learning Objectives:

1. Discuss proper Medicare billing procedure for all DME and repairs.
2. Identify medical policy updates and changes.
3. Review effective use of ABNs.
4. Review documentation requirements for Mobility Assist Equipment.
5. Review proper follow up procedures when receiving a denied or rejected claim.
6. Define fraud and abuse issues relating to DME.

Topics Covered Include:

- Medicare basic rules and reimbursement issues relating to general DME/HME, oxygen, rehab, bariatric and pharmacy
- Medicare policies updates
- Categories - how do you know what item fits into which category
- ABN's - how can I use these effectively?
- Repairs - how do I get them paid? What information do I need?
- MAE (Mobility Assist Equipment) - updates and changes
- PMD (Power Mobility Devices) - updates, changes and documentation requirements
- Top 10 denials and how to work them
- Fraud and abuse issues

This seminar is
